"Life: Choice or Chance?"

MEET OUR GUEST SPEAKERS:

Mrs. Arlen Cotter, an outstanding graduate of Columbia College, speaks to us from the viewpoint of the homemaker. Married to a Columbia architect, she is the proud mother of Leslie, age two.

Miss Thelma Ann Reynolds, Director of Public Relations for the Board of Hospitals and Homes of the Methodist Church comes to us from Chicago, Illinois. A distinguished alumna of Columbia College, she returns to her Alma Mater to counsel us in a field in which she is well-qualified, Christian Vocations.

Mrs. Martha Fitzgerald, Member of the House of Representatives from Richland County and one of few recognized women leaders in the field of law and government, will be on our panel.

Mrs. Marjorie Montgomery, representing the business world on the panel, is the executive secretary to the Vice-president of Bell Telephone Company here in Columbia.

Mrs. Arney Childs, former dean of women at the University of South Carolina, professor of history at Columbia College, lecturer, and authoress, will take part in the panel discussion.

Mrs. Bessie Parker, holding a unique position on the South Carolina Methodist Conference as the only woman serving as a full-time pastor, will conclude our Christian Living Week as guest speaker during Friday chapel.

PURPOSE OF CHRISTIAN LIVING WEEK:

The purpose of Christian Living Week is to provide a broad, meaningful experience in Christian Living for the members of the Columbia College family as they prepare themselves for marriage, for a vocation, and for their eventual position as Christian women in their community.

If you can lock your heart on confidences
Nor ever needlessly in turn confide;
If you can put behind you all pretenses
Of mock humility or foolish pride;
If you can keep the simple homely virtue
Of walking right with God — then have no fear
That anything in all the world can hurt you - -
And - - which is more - - you'll be a Woman, Dear.
